

TOWARDS ZERO PLASTICS TO THE SEAS OF AFRICA

AFRICAN YOUTH WASTE NETWORK MEMBERSHIP

WHO ARE WE?

Sustainable Seas Trust (SST) is a non-profit organisation that supports and connects communities across Africa through education, enterprise development and by growing awareness about ocean conservation and plastic pollution. Its main project is the African Marine Waste Network (AMWN) which focuses on preventing marine pollution in Africa at its source, on land before it gets to the oceans. To achieve this the AMWN focuses on building networks between government, industry and civil society, and fostering enterprise development. The AMWN is an active platform for collaboration, and resource and knowledge sharing within countries and across borders in Africa.

WHAT'S THE AFRICAN YOUTH WASTE NETWORK?

The African Youth Waste Network (AYWN) is pioneering this dialogue as an active platform for collaboration, resource and knowledge sharing for the youth throughout Africa. The AYWN's mandate is to find relevant solutions to Africa's plastic pollution related issues, and provide African, youth-driven contributions to a sustainable future. Our aims are to educate, involve and encourage the youth of Africa in playing a leading role in protecting our environments against plastic pollution. By joining the AYWN, you will be making a valuable contribution to the significant role we play in stopping plastic pollution from reaching our seas and achieving Zero Plastics to the Seas of Africa. ## TERMS AND CONDITIONS AND RULES

1. All youth, under the age of 18 years of age, in the African Youth Waste Network are to be accompanied by and be under the supervision of an appointed teacher and/or guardian, during all African Youth Waste Network activities, meetings, workshops, events, conferences, festivals and anything of this manner.
2. All youth of the African Youth Waste Network are to be non-discriminative towards members of a different nationality, race, age, gender, sexuality, culture and/or religion.
3. The African Youth Waste Network through the Sustainable Seas Trust will facilitate and assist in the productivity of your sustainable initiative where needed but will not take full responsibility for its productivity. Each member is to lead and take responsibility for their initiative within their own capacity and must try their best to help contribute towards Zero Plastics to the Seas of Africa.
4. Each champion is encouraged to provide the AYWN team with progress on their initiative which will be showcased on the Sustainable Seas Trust's social media, website, printed/digital pamphlets, and/or in a third party press release in printed or online media (e.g. The Herald, PE Express, Despatch Live, Sunday Times, The Guardian etc.).
5. I hereby authorise the Sustainable Seas Trust to photograph, record and edit (on film, digital, video, tape, or otherwise) my appearance in connection with any events hosted by Sustainable Seas Trust and further acknowledge that my name could be used on various social and/or traditional media platforms. I further acknowledge that the Sustainable Seas Trust owns all rights to the results and proceeds of my initiative's footage rendered in connection herewith.
6. I hereby give consent to be added onto the AYWN mailing list.

DECLARATION
